

How To Make Your Family Attractive

What are the day-to-day priorities and objectives we need to make our families attractive to our children?

- Have a family night.
- Tell stories to teach character (cause and effect teaching).
- Verbalize constantly about how great your family is.
- Teach in non-conflict times (i.e. vacations).
- Teach family values.
- Have a family verse.
- Limit time spent with friends.
- Have an attitude of happiness for others.
- Practice righteousness: this is honesty week.
 - Humble
 - Frugal
 - Positive
 - Kindness
- Develop a community of people who are like-minded so that you can uphold each other's values, or at least, those who don't undermine your values.
- Have memorials: an item that you can put in a shadow box to remind you of the mighty move of God in your lives.
- Have children involved in giving to God and to the less fortunate.
